

PROJECT: Office Refurbishment

Location: 27 Kings Road, Reading

Value: £1.8M

Timescale: 28 weeks

The client

Equiniti is part of Equiniti Group plc, an international technology-led services and payments specialist. They provide non-discretionary payment and administration services to some of the world's best known brands and UK's largest public sector organisations

The brief

Design & fit-out 1600sqm of office accommodation over four floors. Create a bright, clean & inviting environment for EQ & bring it in line with other Equiniti offices.

Project delivery

The building had not been refurbished for some years & required extensive reconfiguration. The works also included the landlords areas: new entrance doors, lift replacement, reception finishes & complete replacement of all the toilets. The was whilst maintaining 100% occupancy.

Two existing flats have been converted into office tea point & breakout areas with all meeting rooms updated with new technology including video conferencing. New furniture throughout provides a more pleasant working environment and standardised aesthetic.

All heating, cooling & lighting solutions have been installed throughout the building. The transformation also includes a full redesign of the ground floor with a new reception area, client meeting room & interview room.

Feedback from the resident teams describe PJE as 'out-standing', 'exceptional' & as having delivered 'an exemplary piece of work'
